

ONLINE VIA ZOOM

Southern California Dulcimer Heritage proudly sponsors:

Intermediate Level Focus Workshop

MOUNTAIN DULCIMER

WHO - NEAL HELLMAN - Instructor

WHAT- "Music of the World" and
"Singing With the Dulcimer"

Sun., Sept. 27, 2020, 10am-2pm Pacific Time

Mail a check for $50 made out to Neal Hellman to PO Box 585, Felton, CA 95018. Or pay him by PayPal / Remit to: neal@gourd.com Limited spaces. Reserve your spot early. Brown bag lunch.

Held in conjunction with the 26th annual SCDH festival, Sat., Sept. 26, 2020 - ONLINE.

For further information:

www.scdh.org

dulcimer@scdh.org

714-534-2855

NEAL HELLMAN

Mountain Dulcimer

- Music of the World: Featuring arrangements from Neal's latest book "Mountain Dulcimer Arrangements from Both Sides of the Atlantic". Including: Arirang (Korea), Allemande (Belguim), The Last Time I Came Over the Moor (Scotland), Bravery, Courage and Fearless Men (Sweden), Asika Thali (South Africa), C'est l'aviron quis nous mene en haut (French Canadian) and additional arrangements from Ireland, Russia and The Netherlands. Students should be able to perform basic embellishment techniques (hammers, pulls and slides). Also, early Italian Music, Swedish, African, Belguim and Norway.
- Singing With the Dulcimer: Neal will also include instruction on singing with the dulcimer with some interesting songs like – "All I Have to Do Is Dream," "Mr. Bojangles," "Johnny Has Gone for A Soldier," "I Shall Be Released," "Poncho & Lefty."
- <https://www.gourd.com/hellmann.html> nealhellman@gmail.com